Details:

On 10/11/10 at approximately 8:00am, a female juvenile was on her way to school when she walked by the suspect vehicle. The suspect in the vehicle asked the juvenile a question. When the Juvenile looked towards the suspect she observed that he was exposing himself. The juvenile then ran from the suspect.

On 10/15/10 at approximately 3:20 pm a male juvenile was walking on Tulare Avenue towards County Center when he was contacted by a male suspect who was driving a tan vehicle. The suspect asked the victim if he needed a ride. The victim refused. The victim was then asked again and the victim again refused, at which point the suspect drove away.

The suspect in both of these incidents is described as a dark complexion Hispanic male, with facial hair approximately 30 to 40 years old. The suspect is also described as wearing black wire glasses. The suspect vehicle is described as tan or beige 4 door sedan.

The Visalia Police Department is requesting the publics help in identifying the suspect and to remind their child to report any suspicious contact with strangers to a school official or the police.
